Dear Alex:

Now that your summer assignment is nearly completed, I want to express our appreciation for your contribution to the office. Your duties in processing applicant files were important in FBIS' recruitment of qualified employees. The results of your efforts have been clearly felt. Your performance, attitude, and general behavior were highly commendable and I hope your months with FBIS have been instructive and interesting. On behalf of your FBIS colleagues, I wish you success in your college career and in all your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

STAT
